

I Help! need somebody...

You have a top-of-the-line computer, the best digital camera on the market, and the newest MP3 player available. What you don't have is technical experience. SUPPORTrix has you covered.

And not just anybody. SUPPORTrix — your personal help desk!

SUPPORTrix gives you access to your own personal team of highly trained technical experts — providing you with support for your computers, devices, printers, and gadgets. Competitively priced, our service packages all include our customer care promise: your problem isn't fixed until you say it is.

OUTSTANDING TECH SUPPORT DELIVERED NIGHT OR DAY

Call us toll-free or visit us online. Either way, Supportrix experts are always available to handle your questions and problems 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. You'll find our support professionals to be fast, friendly, and able to solve your most vexing technical problems. That's because our technical support professionals are required to have at least four years of technical support experience and to pass our rigorous course of advanced testing. The SUPPORTrix on-site lab is always open and stocked with the latest technology — PCs, printers, cameras, MP3 players, and more — so our team will know exactly how to address your needs.

SUPPORTRIX SERVICES

Our services are not limited to specific products. You name it, SUPPORTrix can help you do it. Set up, activate, install, connect, customize, configure, optimize, update, troubleshoot, and diagnose your technology products, including:

- Hardware from desktops and notebooks to printers and scanners
- MAC and PC operating systems
- Application software and network connections
- Peripherals, from keyboards and monitors to DVD drives and CD-ROMs
- Devices from MP3/MP4 players to digital cameras and universal remotes
- Accessories including Webcams and Internet cameras

It's easy to get started!
